

Despite the deadly serious difficulties we face we need not fear because God is with us and He has defeated those enemies to lead us home to the place of blessing with Him.

God gets glory and we get joy not just by Him giving us the victory but in how He gives us the victory; we are called to defiantly lift our victory cry even in the face of the enemy still clinging on before us.
